9. The right of requisition shall be exercised by the allies and the United States armies in all occupied territory. The upkeep of the troops of occupation in the Rhine land (excluding Alsace-Lorraine) shall be charged to the German government.

10. Immediate repatriation without reciprocity, according to detailed conditions, which shall be fixed of all allies and United States prisoners of war. The allied powers and the United States shall be able to dispose of these prisoners as they wish.

15. Abandonment of the treaties of Bucharest and Brest-Litovsk and of the supplementary treaties.

16. Allies shall have free access to the territories evacuated by the Germans on their eastern frontier, either through Dazing or by the vistsula, in order to convey supplies to the populations of those territories or for any other purpose.

17. Unconditional capitulation of all German forces operating in East Africa within one month.

18. Reparation without reciprocity within a maximum period of one month, in accordance with detailed conditions hereafter to be fixed, of all civilians interned or deported who may be citizens of other allied or associated states than those mentioned in clause 3, paragraph 19, with the reservation that any future claims and demands of the allies and the United States of America remain unaffected.

19. The following financial conditions are required: Reparation for damages done. While such armistice lasts no public securities shall be removed by the enemy which can serve as a pledge to the allies for the recovery of reparation of war losses. Immediate restitution of the cash deposit in the national bank of Belgium, and in general immediate return of all documents, specie, stocks, shares, paper money, together with plant for the issue thereof, touching public or private interests in the invaded countries.

Restitution of the Russian and Rumanian gold yielded to Germany or taken by that power. This gold to be delivered in trust to the allies until the signature of peace.

20. Immediate cessation of all hostilities at sea, and definite information to be given as to the location and movements of all German ships. Notification to be given to neutrals that freedom of navigation in all territorial waters is given to the naval and mercantile marines of the allied and associated powers, all questions of neutrality being waived.

All other submarines to be paid off and completely disarmed, and placed under the supervision of the allied powers and the United States of America.

23. The following German surface warships which shall be designated by the allies and the United States of America shall forthwith be disarmed and thereafter interned in neutral ports, or for the want of them in allied ports, to be designated by the allies and the United States of America, and placed under the surveillance of the allies and the United States of America, only caretakers being left onboard, namely: Six battle cruisers, 10 battleships, eight light cruisers, including two mine layers; 50 destroyers of the most modern type. All other surface warships (including river craft) are to be concentrated in German naval bases to be designated by the allies and the United States of America, and are to be paid off and completely disarmed and placed under the supervision of the allies and the United States of America. All vessels of the auxiliary fleet—trawlers, motor vessels, etc., are to be disarmed.

24. The allies and the United States of America shall have the right to sweep up all mine fields and obstructions laid by Germany outside German territorial waters, and the positions of these are to be indicated.

30. All merchant vessels in German hands belonging to the allies and associated powers are to be restored in ports to be specified by the allies and the United States of America without reciprocity.

31. No destruction of ships or of materials to be permitted before evacuation, surrender or restoration.

32. The German government will notify the neutral governments of the world, and particularly the governments of Norway, Sweden, Denmark and Holland, that all restrictions placed on the trading of their vessels with the allied and associated countries, whether in return for specific concessions such as the export of shipbuilding materials or not, are immediately cancelled.

VULCAN MUST HUSTLE VICTORY LOAN EFFORT

Are Still Behind On Quota While Other Towns Are Over The Top

The Victory Loan has gone somewhat better in Vulcan after the celebration. The first day $10,100 came in and the second day $11,100. This brings us to within $24,800 of going over the top for the Honour Flag. As there are only three more days, it means that everybody must be on the job, at it all the time until the last minute. Unfortunately the 'flu has disorganized the canvassers, and the committee wish that the people of the village especially will not wait for the canvassers to call on them, but to come to headquarters. However, the canvassers will do their best to overtake the territory.

There is a reluctance to sign up for a small sized Bond, but every little helps, and as the French say, it is the rivulets that make the river. There are those who are not able to pay the full amount down, but they need not hesitate to buy a Bond, as very easy and accommodating arrangements can be made for payment.

Norton has got its flag and three crowns, Brant the same, High River, Claresholm, Barons, Carmangay, in fact all the towns around us have got their flags. Vulcan hangs behind; Why? There is no valid reason. The total for Champion and Vulcan is $49,950; the quota is $150,000.

Get busy Vulcan and show the country that you can do something when the opportunity arrives.

FRED W. FORRESTER VICTIM OF INFLUENZA

Frederick William Forrester, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Forrester, of Vulcan, passed away on Monday of this week at Calgary, a victim of pneumonia. He had gone up to report at Sarcee Camp, and whilst there was placed among some others who were under the disease of Spanish influenza. He contracted it and rapidly declined. He was twenty-one years of age, and an only son. A sister, Alice lives in Idaho. He was very well known and popular throughout the district and his death, under peculiarly tragic circumstances, is a distinct blow to his many friends. The sympathy of one and all is extended to his parents in their bereavement.

The funeral will take place from the house at two o'clock on Sunday afternoon, November 17th. There will be an open air service. The interment will take place at the Vulcan cemetery.

RIGHT MAN FOR JOB

Senator Robertson has taken the place of Mr. Crothers as minister of labor. This move has been expected for some time past. The new minister has even discharged many of the functions that properly belonged to the man to whose portfolio he succeeds and has done so in a way to give much confidence in his judgment and ability. He should have the support of the forces of organized labor, in the direct service of which he accomplished so much before he entered the government. The change means a distinct strengthening of the government.

Buck Howson's 10 days' sale starts Saturday, Nov. 16th. Closes Wednesday night, Nov. 27.

NO SERVICES ON SUNDAY NEXT

We noticed that the Governor-General has issued a proclamation for Thanksgiving services to be held in the churches on Sunday, November 17. The Rev. Schrag and his session have decided that as a Thanksgiving service was held last Monday, and in view of the ban placed on public meetings, there will be no services next Sunday. However, there will be a special day of services set apart for thanksgiving as soon as practicable after the epidemic is over.

Be sure and visit Buck & Howson's during their 10 day sale.

HOW THE BIG NEWS CAME TO VULCAN

Entire Town and District Celebrated In Style All Day

All Sunday Vulcan had been waiting for the news of the armistice being signed. The telephone to Calgary was kept going, but the last message, received late at night, contained nothing further than that it was expected at any time.

The eventful news reached here at half past six next morning, and it was not long before the steam whistle and the fire bell roused the town to a sense that at last the armistice was signed and the war virtually over. After that there was nothing but excitement. Business people could do nothing but discuss the matter and wonder what they would do to celebrate. The effigy of the Kaiser was tied to the turning post. Mayor Butchart was appealed to and issued an appeal for a general holiday, and appeal which did not go unrecognized. A hurried meeting under the supervision of the Mayor arranged a programme for the day.

At three o'clock a short service of Thanksgiving was held in the church where there was special singing. Then came a monster procession of over one hundred motor cars. The parade round the town. All the autos were decorated. The rear auto truck carried the effigy of the Kaiser, seated on a saw horse, with a rope round his neck. He was in charge of a soldier. As the Kaiser passed the fireball the bell clanged a doleful dirge, which visibly affected his late majesty to such an extent that he nearly fell off his mount. After the procession there was more cannonading in front of the hotel and the crowd dispersed for supper.

In the evening the effigy was taken out to the old baseball ground and hung from a gibbet over a funeral pyre. The crowd gathered round, and listened to speeches for a few minutes, after which the torches which some of the crowd carried were thrown on to the pyre, and the Kaiser, like his war and his dreams of world conquest, went up in smoke, the crowd giving him a hearty send-off. Patriotic songs were sung, and cheers given for all the Allies, with full measure of groans for the Kaiser. The crowd then dispersed. Some went to their homes, but others, feeling that the day was not fully celebrated, took possession of some of the restaurants in town, and passed the rest of the night in revelry and song.

DISREGARDED THE MASK ORDER

Information was laid by Special Constable Conell against J. D. McIntyre, L. C. House, John Hutson, Ed. Lawrence and Mark Cardiff for not wearing a mask according to the regulations of the Public Health Act. The cases came before the local J. P., who fined three of the offenders $1.00 each without costs, dismissed one case, and adjourned another, which will be heard at a later date.

RED CROSS CELEBRATES DAY

The people of the Red Cross district not to be outdone in their enthusiasm on the declaration of the armistice, celebrated the event with great enthusiasm. A bon fire was built in the Red Cross school yard and an effigy of the Kaiser was made. The effigy was put on the bon fire, shot at and afterwards burned, the crowd meanwhile singing patriotic songs and cheering for the victorious Allies. But one burning did not satisfy them, and after the ceremony was over practically the whole of the celebrators came to Vulcan and helped to dispose of Kaiser number two.

Buck & Howson Remnant Sale opens Saturday, Nov. 16th and closes Wednesday night, Nov. 27th. Buy your full winter supply.

SOLD $2000 WORTH OF VICTORY BONDS

Six car loads of people motored out to the farm of Mr. John Love on Monday morning with the idea of selling him some Victory Bonds.

After the object of the visit had been explained to him he said that he could not afford to put any more than $50 into the national investment. The visitors were of a different opinion, for they had assessed him at $2,000.

The figure frightened him somewhat, for he still objected but on it being pointed out to him that the crowd were in no cheerful mood, he took the pen and signed up for them. When this was accomplished the crowd gave three cheers for all the Allies, Mr. Love being made to participate in the event, two flags being given him to wave, and a Union Jack was nailed to his house. After this the party came back to Vulcan well pleased with their adventure.

Don't overlook the sale of Ladies' Coats at Reeves Store.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Gordon and Margaret spent Sunday with Mr. J. H. Gordon at Warner.

Mr. McIvor, who has recently recovered from the 'flu, is spending a short holiday with friends at Champion.

Miss Porter of Magrath was the guest of Miss Yeo on Sunday and Monday.

The treasurer of the Red Cross Society wishes to acknowledge a donation of $5.00 from Mrs. C. R. Rogers.

Mr. M. P. Gordon of Vinetoria, B.C. was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Gordon on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Butchart and Mrs. Wm. Butchart of Brant were Vulcan visitors on Monday, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Butchart.

The weather during the past week has been fine but windy. On one or two occasions the wind has been very strong, and developed into duststorms.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Gardner and Miss Jessie Huffman wish to thank their many friends for their kindness shown during their recent sickness.

The treasurer of the Red Cross Society wishes to acknowledge a donation of $5.00 from Mr. C. R. Rogers. Mr. Rogers gave this as a slight Thanksgiving offering on the reception of the news regarding the armistice.

Rev. L. Elgin Brough, pastor of the Reid Hill Church, has taken up temporary residence at the home of Mr. Percy Myers, until a parsonage is erected. He wishes to state that while no meetings can be held at present, he is prepared to be of any service he can under existing conditions to any and all families in the community.

Ladies' Coats are a special offer this week at Reeves store.

While the influenza has considerably abated in town and district, the public are warned that this is no time to relax on vigilance. Special Constable Conell has been sworn in to keep an eye on mask-wearing, and anyone who appears on the streets without a mask is promptly hailed before the majesty of the law. So let this be a warning to all that the law is strictly observed by them. Constable Conell is right after the law breakers and intends to stand no "monkey-shine," to use his own expressive phrase.

RED CROSS MUST GO ON

That the work of the Red Cross Society must go on despite the cessation of hostilities is the statement given out by the authorities. The goods will still be needed. We still have our men in hospitals, and those who have done so much during the war are asked to continue with their good work until the need for their services is over.

THE COMING OF PEACE

Late last week the air became surcharged with peace and rumors of peace, and although one report to the effect that the Germans had capitulated was later proved to be false, the real thing is apt to come upon us at any moment, in fact it may be with us before this is printed.

The occasion, when it does come, will be the signal for rejoicings and thankfulness. No one who has followed the course of the struggle through its various arteries, and watched the ever-changing ebb and flow of fortune can hear of peace as an accomplished fact without experiencing a heartfelt gratitude that victory should be ours. The nations who have comprised the Entente Alliance have placed their all at the disposal of war; nothing has been spared. Blood and treasure have been poured out in a steady stream of sacrifice with a nobility and earnestness beyond comprehension. The fact of the war, the mainspring that has given us this victory, sacrifice, is unknown save to the hearts whom God has touched.

The irony of the peace is that we celebrate it, we who have strayed in our places at home, filling a small part, taking no risks, daring no dangers. Those who should celebrate are dead or brokenhearted, and it is not without a thought of these who have paid the supreme sacrifice of war that we should give signs of our joy at this time. On all battlefields the rude crosses of wood mark the graves where our soldiers sleep, and in thousands of homes there are aching and broken hearts to whom peace brings back the memory of those who laid down their lives that we might live. No relative of the dead but feels the sting and irony of our festivities; no glorious victory, however great, can give back to the mother the boy who sleeps in Flanders Fields. Sorrow is the burden of thousands of hearts at this time, and in all our jubilation and thanksgiving let us keep them in mind and let our lips move in silent prayer for those who mourn.

TIME CALLED ON SATURDAY

Time will be called on Saturday, and then the Victory Loan will close. Will we do our share; will we stand out this year as we did last, with a bumping surplus over our quota to our credit?

As yet we are not doing very well. We had a bad time at the harvest and now we are just getting over a bad dose of the 'flu, and all round it has not been a very satisfactory year, particularly when we reflect on the extra land we bought on the expectation of a crop.

But we cannot afford to lie down on the job. The Canadian Expeditionary force did not stop fighting the Germans because we had no crop. They went on just the same, fighting and struggling and ultimately winning out, with the result that today the air is full of peace and peace talk.

Let us back them up to the full. We shall want the money to bring those boys home again and feed and clothe them and find them something to do when they get here. They went in the war for us. When they come back let us be able to show them that we kept faith, ready to the last dollar to back them up.

Many a man, just as good as we are sleeps in a soldier's grave today, and there will be those who thought to welcome him home pretty soon. Instead there is a broken life and an aching heart. Can you break faith with that, my friend? Little children and a weeping, anguished mother here in Canada, and daddy?—daddy sleeps in France, my friend, for your sake and mine. Think of the sacrifice that that family has made for us. Would you do as much?

God knows that from end to end of the world for the past four years there have been hearts that have never had a moment free from anxiety and fear, hearts that have been torn with the fear and horror of what might happen. Meanwhile we have been living in ease and plenty with never a care of the war.

Get out, double up. Double up on your amount, and for the love of those who have fought for you and died for you, do your share by buying Victory Bonds.

THE NEW POLITICAL CHANCE.

When the Union Government was returned so victoriously there were not wanting many people to preach the doctrine that the inauguration meant the birth of a new political era in Canada; hereafter there would be a Unionist party in Canada, for people, seeing the wisdom of a fusion of the best men from both parties, would refuse to go back to the pre-Union days of Liberalism and Toryism.

With this memory before one it is heartrending to witness the stripping for re-entry into the political arena here and there. Men, of a political turn of mind are doffing their jackets ready for the fray, and newspapers owing political allegiance prior to the war, are already busy opening up the subject and pointing out the way.

It was our contention at the commencement of Union government that after the war political affairs would revert to the old order. But we also pointed out that there would be this difference; the weight of a new and hitherto unknown political factor in the returned soldiers. They are going to seek political representation and power, and are not going to be denied. One cannot say that Unionism has so worked out its own salvation as to endear itself to the soldiers; rather the reverse as a matter of fact. And the men of Union Government who will revert back to party lines have not a sufficient hold on the soldiers' sympathies to take the men into either camp. What, then are the soldiers going to do?

This is the supreme moment for independent politics in Canada, and as might have been guessed, it finds total unpreparedness among those to whom it should appeal. Now is the time when those who wish to affiliate themselves with the true democratic ideal and government should be busiest. Our soldiers, our farmers, our workmen, what of them? The soldiers, it is true, have organization which politically is capable of some strength. But what of the other two sections? Still the same old rut and rumble without leadership and inspiration, preferring to kick against articles of government and taking no steps for self articulation. In a word, the three main elements of Canada are today at all intents and purposes without chance of political self expression. And yet this is the hour when so much might be accomplished. The time will soon pass, and the opportunity with it. The opportunity for political independence is here to-day, tomorrow may be too late. What will be done about it?

THEN GRUDGE YE NOT

(Awarded First Prize in Victory Loan Poem Contest)

Since neither word of ours can raise,
Nor prayer of ours restore,
The dear lost lads of other days,
That legion "gone before,"
How shall we grudge the yellow gold
To beat their foemen down,
Where the Red Prussians pitiless hold
Sacked city, pillaged town?

But if some faith of ours could know,
Some prayer of ours awake,
The dear lost lads of long ago,
That perished for our sake;
And at the dusk their spirits dim
Come whispering sweet and far
From that fair land beyond the rim
Of things that mortal are—

If such could be, would there not ask
(Vague voices down the wind)
That we should help—ah, humble task
Their comrades left behind?
Then grudge we not the yellow gold
To beat their foemen down,
Where the Red Prussians pitiless hold
Sacked city, pillaged town.
—George H. Maitland.

All for Canada, and Canada all for Victory Bonds.

According to some prophets, peace will bring about the death of the Union Government. Needless to say, the prophets are purely disinterested, non-political fellows with never an eye to the main chance.

The best way to celebrate peace is to buy Bonds.

We note that in some cities the cancellation of amusements on account of the 'flu has extended to the council meetings.

According to reports the Republicans are leading the U. S. elections. They are apparently also leading in Germany, but through far different causes.

Don't fall out of step, buy Bonds.

Germany needs your coin, and so does Canada; which is it to be? Buy Bonds.

The recent report that the Germans had signed the armistice was proved to be false, but we are still wondering whether it was a mistake or whether it was pulled off for the sake of someone getting in on the markets.

It is now in order for the Kaiser to sing: "Will there be any prongs in my fork?"

Let us not fall behind, keep going; buy Bonds.

German Social-Democrats have stated that unless peace is concluded immediately they will resign their ministerial posts. After that, what else can the Kaiser do?

Bonds are as good as life insurance.

The Allies are already making preparations to feed their starving enemies who have surrendered, which is in direct opposition to what the Germans did in Belgium.

Every penny you can spare, friends, into Bonds.

The dove of peace has returned to the ark so many times during the war that she will be really glad to get out into the open and stay there.

For the luvamike get in before Saturday.

Canada's war bill to the present greatly exceeds two billion dollars. We can all help the situation by buying Bonds.

People in England are paying almost a dollar for a two-pound tin of canned peaches. Our turn to pay so highly in account of the war has not arrived yet.

Can you do fifty per cent. better than your quota—that means two crowns for your Honor Flag.

But double your quota and it means four crowns.

BLACKIE NEWS

Art O'Neill is slowly recovering from the flu. He pays tribute to Virgo's shadow soup as a preventative to pneumonia. He also desires to compliment Mayor Schmidt on the strict manner in which he enforced the flu quarantine as he played the part of jailer in proper style.

As a result of segregation those afflicted with influenza in the King George Hotel we have reason to believe that the spread of the epidemic has been kept down. Five cases were treated and the intention is to have patients brought there at the initial stage of the disease where they will receive proper care. Mrs. Charles Fisk, volunteered her services as a nurse, and in this connection is deserving of the highest praise for the sacrifice made.

The funeral of the late Mr. Fay of Frankburg took place on Saturday last and many joined in the solemn cortege to the cemetery. The deceased was a man of fine parts, was public spirited and the community will feel his loss very much. The bereaved family have the deepest sympathy of all in their severe loss.

Robt. Wilkinson delivered a new McLaughlin Six Special this week to Mr. J. J. Lowery of the Dinton district.

The people of Blackie and district awaited very anxiously, news of the condition of Dr. Stanley, and when the crisis was over on Sunday they were overjoyed that he had survived. Dr. Stanley occupies a very high place in the estimation of all citizens and it is a great relief to know that he has been spared to continue his splendid services to the community at large. Alberta has too few public men of the high type of Dr. Stanley and the province has much need of his knowledge and ability. May he long be spared to reside with us is the heartfelt wish of all.

Notwithstanding the fact that the Blackie Victory Loan district was gerrymandered in a most unfair fashion, the canvassing committee made good in every respect. The first day they went on record with $21,100 and since then they have won their flag and several crowns. They have only five townships and as the Mennonites in the Mazeppa district are contributing to the fund only for allocation of suffering and for Red Cross work, this placed them at a disadvantage. The Blackie canvassing committee are quite hopeful of making a grand total of $60,000, the objective being $41,000.

The Blackie postmaster is now prepared for the cold blast of winter. A storm porch will do much to keep out the draft.

The fall of the German Military clique along with the Kaiser and his sons was celebrated on Monday by Mr. Slack by pulling down the old Federal Oil Well Derrick, which he purchased from the owners, the piping and machinery of which he is shipping up to the Peace River country where he will use it in the developing of oil properties in that locality.

"Pigs is pigs" and frequently they are responsible for a lot of legal trouble between neighbors. Last Saturday Mr. Brown appeared before Justice of the Peace, Wm. McNichol at High River on a charge laid by his neighbor Mr. Richardson for allowing his hogs to wander around unceremoniously in Mr. Richardson's fields contrary to law. Mr. Brower acknowledged the same and had to pay the costs of the court, and a promise to not let it occur again.

The price of potatoes in Calgary last week was $30 to $32 per ton.

Fred Rockefeller had three loads of cattle and a load of hogs shipped from here last week.

Five cars of cattle were shipped from Blackie last week by Wesley Elliott to Calgary.

THE GLAD NEWS

While the glad tidings of Germany's fall and complete capitulation to the terms of the Allies armistice is a source of great satisfaction and complete joy to all of us, it is preponderantly and peculiarly such to those mothers, fathers, sisters and brothers whose families have been responding to the call of their country at the front for the past four and a half years of bitter strife, and whose lives in consequence have been relentlessly restless, fearful and unhappy. Only to these is the real import of the good news truly appreciated and only by these is such news fully understood. It means to them a relaxing of the nervous tension under which they have been existing. It means to them a return to repose and quiet. A weight has been thrown from their body and a mist has been moved from their mind. They can now look forward to a reuniting of their former family ties, if any there be, with the future assurance that the world is safe from the possibility of another such national calamity, and with the very great satisfaction of knowing that their kindred has done its duty to their country and humanity and had helped make the world in future a fit place to live in.

THERE WAS JOY ALL THE WORLD OVER

Signing Of Armistice By Germany Is Signal For General Thanksgiving

The war is over. Not that peace is signed, but the acceptance and signing of the armistice by the Germans at five o'clock on Monday morning, brought the war to an end. Hostilities on all fronts ceased six hours after the signing of the armistice.

Four years, four months and seven days is the actual length of the war, and in it twenty-six nations and principalities of the world have taken part. It has been fought in Europe, Asia and Africa.

The news of the armistice being signed was flashed to all parts of the world, and immediate celebration of the event began in the countries of the Allied nations. From everyone of them there arose a fervent prayer of thanksgiving that at last everything was over and the German beaten to the extent of any realization being out of the question.

In London, England, the event was marked by special services of Thanksgiving in many of the churches. Crowds also gathered round Buckingham Palace, 10 Downing Street and the residence of the Lord Mayor. The King and Lloyd George received enthusiastic ovations from the people and soldiers of the Allied nations.

In the United States the welcome news was received with great enthusiasm. The terms of the armistice were read to the Senate by President Wilson.

While France has received the news with great welcome and demonstration there is a tendency to hold back until the tragedy which has cost France the lives of two and half million soldiers is definitely closed.

Canada was not behind the jubilation. In every town and city and throughout the Dominion there was demonstrations of rejoicing. Her right to rejoicing is founded on the valiant 600,000 who have donned the uniform for service, and her last historic act in the closing chapter of the struggle, the capturing of Mons, a city whose name will forever stand out in the annals of the war.

Throughout every part of the Empire the people received the news with joy, for the struggle to which they had contributed their men and resources was at last over, and they had played their part in bringing the menace to civilization to its death.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS OF CANADA

UNITE TO HELP

VICTORY LOAN

BY

WAR MEMORIAL

ONE MILLION SCHOLARS!
ONE MILLION DOLLARS!

A million Sunday School scholars and members of Young People's Associations of the Anglican, Presbyterian, Baptist, Methodist and Congregational Churches are co-operating on a plan which has the three-fold purpose of helping to boost the Victory Loan Over the Top; assisting the Churches to extend their mission work, and commemorating the heroism of church members who have fallen at the Front. "Every School at least one bond" is the cry that will help to carry the 1918 Victory Loan to the Sunday Schools' million dollar objective. Above is a reproduction of the shield to be presented to each Sunday School subscribing a bond.

WHY NOT HALF-OPEN TENTS

The treatment of influenza in many eastern United States cities and military camps by "housing" the patients in half-open tents would seem from the reports to be so successful as to warrant adoption here. Would it not be wise for the medical authorities of the city to get together for the purpose of a general discussion of this and other phases of the epidemic which have developed with recent days?

It is possible that the climate here is too severe to permit of such accommodation of patients, but upon this point the medical authorities could decide. In all probability they would agree that such tent-structures could be devised as would be effective of the same result, though perhaps not built quite so openly.

TEN WAYS TO IMPEDE THE SUCCESS OF AN ASSOCIATION

1. Miss as many meetings as you can.
2. If you do attend, don't come on time, but late.
3. If the weather is fine, don't think of attending.
4. If you attend, be sure and find fault with the work of officers and other members.
5. Decline all offices, as it's easier to criticize than to do things.
6. Get sore if you are not put on a committee; or, if appointed, don't attend meetings.
7. If the chairman asks for your opinion, do not express it, but afterwards tell others what should have been done.
8. Do nothing except what is absolutely necessary; and when others roll up their sleeves to help matters, hawl because of the clique running things.
9. Delay your dues as long as you can, and delay answering all letters.
10. Don't bother about getting new members—"Let George do it!"

THE DAY

Now that the Hun's day of vaunting is over, it is interesting to recall some of the earlier poems and cartoons that foresaw Germany's Day of Reckoning. Chief among the poems of that time is "Civilization's Reply" to the toast "Der Tag," that has been on every German officer's lips these many years. The poem is by Henry Chapell, a railway porter of Bath, and appeared in the London "Daily Express" in the early months of the war.

You boasted the Day, and you toasted the Day,
And now the Day has come,
Blasphemer, Braggart and coward all,
Little you reck of the numbing ball,
The blasting shell, or the "White Arm's" fall,
As they speed poor humans home.

You spied for the Day, you lied for the Day,
And woke the Day's red spleen;
Monster, who asked God's aid divine,
Then strewed the seas with the ghastly mine
Not all the waters of all the Rhine,
Can wash thy foul hands clean.

You dreamed for the Day, you schemed for the Day,
Watch how the Day will go;
Slayer of age and youth and prime,
(Defenceless slain for never a crime)
Thou art steeped in blood as a hog in slime
False friend and coward foe.

You have sown for the Day, you have grown for the Day;
Yours is the harvest red;
Can you hear the groans and the awful cries?
Can you see the heaps of the slain that lies
And sightless turned to the flame-split skies
The glassy eyes of the dead?

You have longed for the Day, you have wronged for the Day
That lit the awful flame,
'Tis nothing to you that hill and plain
Yield sheaves of dead men among the grain;
That widows mourn for their lived ones slain,
And mothers curse thy name.
But after the Day there's a price to pay,
For the sleeper under the sod,
And He you have mocked for many a day—
Listen and hear what He has to say:
"Vengeance is mine, I will repay."
What can YOU say to God?

BUCKING THE KAISER

In the good old western style.

Wise Ones Are Buying Victory Bonds

The people of southern Alberta know how to make good use of an opportunity when it is put before them. This is proven by the enormous number of subscriptions that are being made to the Victory Loan, and this in spite of the fact that the organizations in many places have been very severely handicapped by illness, not only amongst the committees in charge of the work but in the districts which they cover.

To the average person the idea of lending is to do a favor. But buying a Victory Bond bearing 5 1/2 per cent interest and exempt from income taxation is not a favor. It is a business proposition, with the advantage all in favor of the buyer. And it will be because it is good business, and not because they are doing favors to any one—except themselves—that our people are buying to their capacity. And the nearer we are to peace the better and the more attractive the proposition.

The canvassers who are bringing in the best results are those who make the campaign slogan "invest" instead of "lend". Everything points to southern Alberta totals reaching the ultimate objective of eight and a half millions by the time the campaign closes on November 16, for before the campaign was half way through the amounts subscribed had already gone over six million dollars. It is unfortunate that some people will be apt to miss the chance of getting in their subscriptions owing to illness in their families, but canvassers are taking the best possible care they can to give everybody a chance. On the Thursday of this week the following places have won prizes: Bassano, one and a half crowns; Crossfield, one and a half crowns; Jenner, one and a half crowns; Carleton Place, one and a half crowns; Marmora, one and a half crowns; Okauchis, one and a half crowns; Bow Island, one and a half crowns; and one crown.

Lethbridge had the proud distinction of being the first city to overtop its high objective and to win a honor flag and three crowns. Very shortly after that news came in that Crow's Nest Pass also passed its high objective. Coleman also gained a flag and three crowns, and furthermore a flag and one crown.

"A tiny little British Tommy, he was a very tiny chap brought in a big, burly Prussian officer, and they stood together, it was interesting to see the little way in which this Prussian officer look down upon the English Tommy. He looked down upon him from every point of view—nationally, physically, socially, and intellectually, and every other way, until you wondered how there was anything left of that little Tommy. He said to him at last, very disdainfully: 'You fight for money.' Just fancy, you can see a man telling a British Tommy that he fights for money, and you know how much the poor fellow gets for his five cents a day; when he gets it, and there are all sorts of dangers for insurance for fines Tommy has a genius for fighting, for all sorts of things, and if you look at the little Tommy, you know it is positively cruel to tell Tommy Atkins that he fights for money. (Laughing) Oh no oh no Tommy, a fine fight for something else that is wonderfully grander than money. Tommy Atkins does not fight for money, Tommy was equal to the occasion. He looked up at the big Prussian, he asked him what he fought for. 'I fight for honor,' said the Prussian. 'Ah, yes,' said Tommy, 'we are both fighting for what we haven't got!'"

PLUMP FOR VICTORY BONDS

War Efficiency and National Prosperity

More than a billion and a half dollars distributed in Canada for exported agricultural produce and the products of labor in the fiscal year ending March 31, 1918, has kept Canada busy and prosperous in spite of the war.

CANADA'S production in such enormous quantities was made possible only by the money received through Canada's War Loans. Canada thus was enabled to assist the Allies in their purchases here by establishing financial credits for their use in this country.

CANADA'S war loans not only have sustained Canada's war effort, but they have kept the wheels of production turning as they never turned before.

This is the flood of cash which poured in to Canada's farms for their exports in the fiscal year 1918, for:—

Butter.....	$ 2,000,000
Cheese.....	36,602,000
Eggs.....	2,271,000
Oats.....	37,644,000
Wheat.....	366,341,000
Flour.....	95,896,000
Meats.....	76,729,000
Vegetables.....	19,034,000

Over six hundred and thirty-six million dollars for exported farm products alone!

AND the workers of Canada also shared greatly in Canada's export trade.

For their products there was distributed in Canada, during the year:

Munitions.....	$450,000,000
Metals.....	92,083,000
Vehicles.....	22,776,000
Wood Pulp and Paper..	59,599,000

These huge sums were spent in Canada by the Allies.

Canada's own war expenditure for the fiscal year 1918 was $342,762,000.

And the bulk of all these expenditures, the foundation of Canada's prosperity and war effectiveness, was made possible only because the subscribers to Canada's war loans furnished the working capital.

CANADA must keep this great work going—must produce as never before; must work, fight, save and lend as she has never yet done to bring victory and a lasting peace to a war-ridden world.

But Canada to-day (thanks to her great export trade), is in a better position now than ever, to carry on.

The Victory Loan 1918 will keep Canada busy, will enable her to maintain her great export business; and it will make Canada more efficient than ever, because her prosperity will not be diminished and her determination to work, fight and win will be stronger than it has ever been before.

PEACE HATH HER VICTORIES

The enemies of civilization are taking the count one by one. Bulgaria, Turkey, Austria—all have succumbed to the terrific onslaughts of Great Britain and her glorious Allies, and perhaps before this gets into print, the instigator of the foul crime against humanity, the once proud German Empire may have thrown herself on the mercy of the world.

That will be the Peace that seemed so far away only a few short weeks ago. How glorious it will be to know that our boys "over there" are through fighting. And we will prepare to bring them home and to re-establish them in peaceful pursuits.

"Peace Hath Her Victories No Less Renowned Than War." It is for us, then, to remove the difficulties we see in our path, and we can do this by lending the Government to the limit of our ability so that industry will not lag and Canada will face the new problems with serenity and confidence.

Put a little bit away for a rainy day; buy Bonds.

GREAT LIVE STOCK DEMAND

Peace talk emphasizes the world shortage of cattle, sheep and hogs—in fact all live stock in Canada will be called upon to help restore the flocks and herds of Europe, and the after-war demand will be greater than the war demand in the view of those in touch with conditions.

HOW CLARESHOLM GET AFTER THE SLACKERS

Mr. H. Penzloff and Mr. A. Lange each subscribed $2,000 for Victory Bonds. This will doubtless be very pleasant reading to many of our readers who have had doubts as to their sympathy with the cause of the Allies. It was not necessary, as some expected, to use the tar and feathers either. Mr. H. Penzloff also gave $200 to the Red Cross and carried the Union Jack and the Stars and Stripes through the main street. A man is not to be blamed because of the place of his birth, but every man should be patriotic to the land of his adoption and to the country where he made his wealth. —Clareholm Review.

BRANT NEWS

Let us all rejoice, the Kaiser is a thing of the past. The peace news received on Monday morning was very welcome. Brant people celebrated the day by closing down all places of business.

Early on Monday evening Kaiser Bill was captured on Elevator Row. As soon as the news spread the inhabitants rushed to the scene. Forches were made, and while some hurried away to erect a scaffold, a parade was formed and they marched to the scaffold where Kaiser Bill was hanged and then burned.

Mr. H. O. McNeill is up and around after an attack of the flu.

Mrs. Lafferty's condition still remains serious.

Mr. George Bateman is reported to be improving.

Mr. Bahike has built a new implement shed. Mr. Bahike is taking over the agency of the Massey-Harris line, which was formerly handled by Mr. Thomas.

The offices and sheds of the Beaver Lumber company are nearing completion.

200 POUNDS OF FLOUR LIMIT

A bona fide farmer who has grown wheat himself may have 200 pounds of wheat flour in his possession, or enough for ordinary household requirements of 200 days, and so may any consumer who lives at a greater distance than five miles from his regular licensed miller or dealer. All others are now limited to 100 pounds or 60 days' supply at any one time, except those householders cut off from civilization by the close of navigation. These people may also have the limit of 200 days ordinary supply of flour and of sugar likewise.

IT ONLY NEEDED ONE SHIP

A story is told of the Kaiser watching the United States soldiers approaching the field of battle. The Kaiser was stood on a height watching the soldiers move up to the trenches.

"What a large body of soldiers" he remarked, "it must have taken a great quantity of ships to bring them to France."

"No, sire" replied someone who was with him, "only one, the Lusitania."

Jack Canuck—Storekeeper

IN Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta Jack Canuck is running an immense produce business these days.

He has millions of bushels of grain; boat loads of flour; vast herds of cattle, sheep and pigs; butter, cheese and poultry and other food supplies by the trainload.

The customers at his counter are Great Britain, France and Italy, whose credit is unquestionable, but who are just now short of cash. So Jack Canuck in order to sell his goods must give his customers credit until the war is won.

It is just the same situation that confronts every storekeeper who gives farmers credit until their crops are harvested.

So Jack Canuck borrows money on Victory Bonds in order to give credit to his customers.

He pays good interest on Victory Bonds. He offers as security all Canada and everything contained therein.

By issuing Victory Bonds Jack Canuck keeps his big business going—and all the money he borrows from Canadians he spends in Canada.

We must buy Victory Bonds in order that the business of Jack Canuck shall remain prosperous and healthy.

We must buy Victory Bonds in order that our brave and gallant army shall have food, clothing and ammunition to win complete Victory over the enemies of our country.

so that Jack Canuck can continue to give credit to his customers

The Bank will trust you

Perhaps you never had an account in a bank—maybe you've never done business in a bank—hardly even cashed a cheque in one. But—that is no reason why you cannot go to a bank and borrow money to buy Victory Bonds.

If you are a steady, industrious, thrifty citizen, working and saving a part of your income, you are just the kind of person Canada's chartered banks stand ready to help to-day.

Any bank will lend you as much money as you can save during the next twelve months, with which to buy Victory Bonds.

All you have to do is to pay ten per cent. of the amount you want to buy and deposit the receipt for that ten per cent. in the bank.

The bank will lend you the 90 per cent. balance at 5½ per cent. interest and will give you a year to repay it, the interest you get on your bond being just the same as the bank charges you.

This is a fine opportunity for you to begin a real savings account, to make a first class investment and to help your country at the same time.

Why not see a banker to-day—he will tell you all about it and you will be glad of the advice and help he can give you.
